

“I started in 2015 when we were Chili Volunteer Ambulance Service. I’ve always been one to help others but my true journey in EMS started after I witnessed and rendered aid to a down motorcyclist that had been struck by a car. Shortly after that experience I wanted to know more on how I could be a better provider, so I joined CVAS EMS.

I am currently an EMT with CHS.”

In my free time:

On my down time I like to go camping, hiking, spending time with my Siberian Husky, trying new foods at different restaurants, saltwater reef tanks, starting (and not finishing) too many home projects and working on my truck.

I used to have sting rays as pets.
